PROFILE

You

Login required to access this page. Users can edit their account, change their settings, read legal documents, or, optionally, check out social media pages.

Below, users see their rewards with the coupon code to redeem.

The screenshot shows the Mobilfox mobile application interface. At the top, it displays the time (9:41), signal strength, and battery level. Below this is a header with the word "You" and a "3x" zoom indicator. The main content area contains four menu items:

- <Member Name> Manage account, edit information
- Social Media Follow us on social
- Settings Preferences, feedback
- Legal documents Terms & Conditions, Privacy Policy

Below the menu is a section titled "Your rewards". It features a promotional offer for "Ethernal Dreams cases with -50%" until June 11, 2024. A coupon code "000000XXX" is displayed next to a copy icon. At the bottom of the rewards section are three navigation icons: "Rewards", "Wheel", and "Shop".

Onboarding

Introduces the app's features to users, gets permission to send notifications.

The image displays three mobile phone wireframes side-by-side, showing the user interface for a MOBILFOX application. The first wireframe shows the login screen with fields for email and password, and buttons for 'Login' and 'Create an account'. The second wireframe shows the start of a sign-up process with fields for first name, last name, email, password, country, and a 'Next' button. The third wireframe continues the sign-up process with fields for phone number, birthday, gender, and phone type, and a 'Sign up' button.
