Trustpilot

We are helping Trustpilot designing their B2B product, which helps businesses understand their reviews better, recognise trends and see their progress in meaningful visualisations.

The screenshot shows a product page for the Beoplay HX headphones. At the top, there are two circular icons: one indicating 'Top 1 in Battery Life' and another indicating 'Top 3 in Sound Quality'. Below these are two user reviews:

- User 1: Expert User, 5 stars, mentions battery life.
- User 2: Expert User, 4.5 stars, mentions comfort.

A bar chart on the left shows the distribution of review ratings:

Rating	Percentage
Excellent	52%
Great	28%

- Health Records Screen: Displays a waveform graph titled "Average Waveform". A note below states: "The above waveform shows the standard waveform parameters compared to your personal parameters." It also shows three circular status indicators: Fitness Status (green), Heart Muscle Status (green), and Cardio Risk (green).
- Fitness Status Screen: Shows a large red banner at the top with the text "Overloaded Fitness Status" and "Slow Down!". Below it, running metrics are displayed: Time 32:42, Distance 3.6 km, Pace 4:20 min/km, Heartrate 68 bpm, and Remaining Time 15:20. There are also control buttons for play/pause and forward.

BabyWeather

BabyWeather is beloved by parents all around the world for providing weather appropriate dressing recommendations for their little ones

We helped to realize a small business' idea from inception to market release and since are proud to own part of the product

The image displays three iPhone screens showing the BabyWeather app's user interface. The first screen shows the main weather card for Budapest at 14°C, cloudy, with a sun icon. Below it are six clothing items: Rövidujjú body (red), Vékony zokni (yellow socks), Farmer (blue jeans), Rövidujjú póló (purple striped shirt), Sapka (pink cap), and Vékony kabát (green hoodie). The second screen shows the same weather card but with a moon and stars icon, indicating night. The third screen shows a 'Tippek' (Tips) section with categories like tömegközlekedés (public transport), általános (general), autó (car), hideg idő (cold weather), átmeneti idő (transitional weather), meleg idő (hot weather), repülés (travel), and öltözöttetés (outfitting). It includes tips such as: 'Legyen nálunk könnyen elérhető tisztító törlőkendő, hogy megtörölhessük vele kicsinyünk kezecskéit.' (Have a easily accessible cleaning cloth to clean our little ones' hands), 'A túlöltözöttés ugyanúgy gondot okozhat, mint az alulöltözöttés, ezért rendszeresen ellenőrizd babád tarkóján a hőérzetet: a túl sok réteg alatt beizzadva könnyen megfázhat az átnedvesedett ruháktól.' (Over-layering can cause just as much discomfort as under-layering, so always check your baby's head temperature: overheating can easily occur if too many layers are added to a wet outfit), and 'Ha nem tudod eldönntení egy anyagról, hogy tartalmaz e műszálat, akkor tartasd a fény felé: ha csillagost tapasztalsz, akkor biztosan van benne.' (If you don't know if a fabric contains metal fibers, hold it up to the light: if you see stars, it's definitely there).
